The Italian Cultural & Community Center of Houston, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization produces the Houston Italian Festival. The Houston Italian Festival gives back to Houston and its surrounding areas while offering a unique opportunity for businesses to introduce their special products and services to an audience of all ages, and at the same time are included among those actively supporting the cultural diversity of this great city. This event helps support:

- Italian Cultural & Community Center (www.iccchouston.com) – which supports multiple college scholarship programs, the ICCC Italian Language School, the ICCC lecture series, Italian movie series and other learning events offered to promote Bringing Culture to Life to the Houston community.
- University of St. Thomas Scholarship Fund (www.stthom.edu) - Founded in 1947 by the Basilian Fathers, the University of St. Thomas offers a Catholic liberal arts education for a lifetime of opportunities and challenges. Students can choose from 35+ undergraduate and 20+ graduate degree programs. The University's proximity to downtown and the Texas Medical Center enhances opportunities for internship and networking experiences. Liberal arts degrees provide invaluable training to a wide range of careers including business, teaching, health, communication, law, the arts and many others. Learn more at ShineATust.com.
- Charity Guild of Women (www.charityguildshop.org) - The mission of the Guild is the sanctification of its members under the patronage of the Immaculate Heart of Mary through the practice of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy and the practice of charity by rendering assistance to children of need in the Greater Houston Area, regardless of race or creed.
- Monarch School (www.monarchschool.org) - The Monarch School is dedicated to providing an innovative, therapeutic education for individuals with neurological differences. Monarch offers a learner-centered approach that helps students progress in Four Core Goal areas critical for development. The Monarch School is shaping lives from the inside out[™].

To continue this great tradition, we appreciate the generosity of area businesses. Please contact us at info@houstonitalianfestival.com to inquire as to how your business can help to bring Italian “Culture to Life” for the Houston Community.
